

River Cities Title 1 Family Involvement Policy

Our Promise to Commitment, Communication and Community

Commitment:

- Parent/Teacher/Student applications, interviews, and compacts. Parents are asked to sign applications, attend interviews, and review the RCHS handbook so that they are aware of the expectations and requirements.
- Professional teacher education
- Quality instruction, curriculum, and assessment
- Individual student future planning conferences

Communication:

- Parent participation in decision making process
- Curriculum, assessment, and proficiency levels for students will be communicated in the following ways:
  - Orientation for students and their families so everyone is clear as to the expectations, academic standards, and assessments at RCHS. It also provides a chance for students and guardians to meet their teachers and tour the building.
  - Quarterly newsletters provide literacy training and tips on how to improve student achievement.
  - Parent surveys
  - Written and oral progress reports
  - Annual review of plan by parents and teachers

Community:

- Open houses provide families a chance to visit classrooms and teachers.
- Parent/teacher conferences are held at various times so that families can hear about student progress and visit classrooms.
- All parent involvement activities will be supported financially
- Community support teams that are coordinated by Social Services, probation officers, families, and teachers and are hosted at RCHS.
